Dear Miss Bowers

I am returning your photos, along with the winners that we have selected. They are marked on the back of the pictures, both the boys and the girls, as you suggested.

It was my pleasure to be selected as judge and it was, of course, a difficult choice to make, because if it were up to me, all of the boys and girls should be winners. But since I have to select just five out of such a wonderful group, these are my selections

My very best wishes,

Sincerely

PERRY COMO

Senior Trip

Senior Activities

After the seniors have come through those long twelve years, they look back at all the times they shared together. There are 17 seniors who have traveled through these twelve years together, all at Swanton. These are Elaine Bowers, Jim Bradford, Bill Bryan, Phyllis Culler, Delores Drennan, Mary Jo Faber, Jerry Fleming, Doris Hallett, Ralph Houser, John Jewell, Norma Jordan, Marilee Kahle, Milton Keener, Paul Longlott, Martin Peters, Leah Rae Witker, and Mary Lou Ziegler. Many exciting experiences are enjoyed throughout this senior year. The important highlights in the senior year are class trip to New York City, name cards, individual pictures, and the prom. The seniors this year are going in May. All during the year the seniors have been busy with their chicken supper, bakesales, and such events that bring in money towards the trip.

Classes

Juniors

The class of '57 is made-up of 87 members, one of the largest classes in school. The juniors have had numerous money-making projects during the year to help pay for the Junior-Senior Prom. To begin with, they sold candy at noons and after school. On November 18, 1955, the Junior Class presented their class play, "Just Ducky." They also sponsored a bake sale and a dance.

Officers for the year were: President, Milo Hilty; Vice-President, Ron Dixon; Secretary, Rosemary Kethel; Treasurer, June Gladfelter.

THIRD ROW: Norma Hallnan, Marilyn Tuggle, Phyllis Whaley, Sue Perkins, Jean Mikola, Irene Harding, Norma Wiles, Joyce Brick, Donna Myers, Mary Edith Griffin, Ruth Baehren, Peggy Froman, Janet Bick, Bonnie Hagerman.

G. A. A. stands for Girl's Athletic Association, the organization that strives to emphasize whole some recreation, good sportsmanship in defeat as well as victory, interest in the welfare of the school, and outstanding leadership.

Any girl who has a keen interest in sports and feels an interest in the school's activities may submit a letter to the organization requesting admission. These letters are read before the group for discussion and approval.

The G. A. A. solves its financial problems by selling refreshments at the basketball and football games.

Each year the G. A. A. strives to make some contribution to the school. This year this organization contributed $75.00 toward the purchase of a trampoline for use in the new gymnasium now under construction.

The Sophomore Y-Teens is the sophomore girl's branch of the organization. They are also affiliated with the YWCA They held their informal initiation in the Home Economics room. This year the girls held a bake sale, sponsored the Farewell Sock Hop, and donated 25 dollars to the trampoline fund.

The officers for the year were: President, Dora Boggs ; Vice-President, Carol Copeland; Secretary, Mary Sturt; Treasurer, Margie Sarkisian. The sponsor was Miss Baker.

Senior

The Senior Y-Teens is an organization for junior and senior girls who are interested in maintaining a Christian standard throughout the home, school, and community. The need for religion is emphasized and each meeting begins with a devotional period.

The informal initiation for the new members was held at Mrs. Carpenter's house. The Senior Y-Teens were in charge of the Easter devotions. "Bunny sisters" or secret pals add excitement to birthdays and Christmas.

The officers for the year were: President, Julia Corwin; Vice President, Myrna Hallnan; Secretary, Joyce Storehalder; Treasurer, Marilee Kahle. The sponsor was Mrs. Carpenter.

SECOND ROW: Tom Krause, Bill Bryan, Jerry Fleming, Paul Longlott, John Jewell, Harold Zenk, Martin Peters.

THIRD ROW: Ron Stinson, Carl Kinney, Dan Brown, Everett Arnold, Harold Heath, Terry Vance, Herbert Reynolds.

This is not an organization in the true sense of the word. However, it is a group of boys donating their time and efforts to help out the teachers when operating movies. This group is made up primarily of juniors and seniors .

Freshmen Y-Teens

The Freshmen Y-Teens is a branch of the Y.W.C.A. The aim of the club is to promote co-operation among the girls and to promote Christian standards.

Activities of the club included a sales tax drive and bake sales to raise money for a donation to the trampoline fund. For entertainment they had a Splash Party, and Christmas party, and a roller skating party.

The club was sponsored by Mrs. McAdams. The officers were: President Joyce Mapes; Vice-President, Margaret Pawlaczyk; Secretary, Oddlyn Bundy; Treasurer, Pauline Roberts; Student Council representative, Aneita Sharples.

SECOND ROW: Mr. Juett, Shelby Von Seggern, Jane Hennings, John Hennings, Julia Corwin, Phyllis Wiland, Mr. Radebaugh.

The Future Teachers of America is a rather new organization this year. It has been named after Mr. L. A. Walker, former superintendant of Swanton High School. The full name is The L. A. Walker Future Teachers of America.

There are twelve members this year, the sponsors being Mr. Radebaugh and Mr. Juett. The president this year is Norma Jordan; vice-president, Julia Corwin; secretary, Shelby Von - Seggern.

These members assist in teaching, working in the office, and many other means of earning points. After a member has earned points, he is eligible for an F. T. A. pin.

Our organization is affiliated with the Ohio Teachers Organization and also the National Education Association.

The purposes of the F. T. A. shall be as follows: to learn about the opportunities in teaching, to cultivate the qualities essential in a good teacher, to study the lives of great teachers, and to foster the development of student leadership.

SECOND ROW: Mr. Bonam, Norma Jordan, Charles Bayless, Jim Corwin, Stephen Geer, Mike Robbins, Wanda Damaske, Mrs. Carpenter.

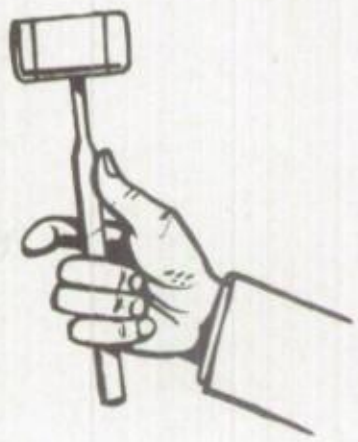
The Student Council was organized in 1951 to give the student body representation. It gives the students a say in the government of the school. The Student Council is elected by the students themselves and the members are the presidents of the four grades in high school, two representatives from the seventh and eighth grades, two students elected from each the junior and senior classes, and one represenative from each of the organizations.



Activities of the Student Council included improving the assembly programs and pep rallies, revising the method of electing cheerleaders, and arranging the ceremonies for Homecoming. Mrs. Sagert helped the Student Council in their popcorn sales at football and basketball games.

The officers for the year were: President, Pete Najarian; Vice-President, Milton Keener; Secretary and Treasurer, Delores Drennan. The sponsors were: Mrs. Carpenter, Mr. Bonam, and Mr. Radebaugh.

Hi-Life

The Swanton Hi-Life, the school newspaper in its 27th year of publication, is published each week by the students. The editor gives assignments on Friday, the day for delivering the paper, and they are usually due on Monday. This material makes up the paper for the next week. It is printed by the Swanton Enterprise.

Try-outs are held at the end of each school year to determine the new staff members. Any freshmen having A's or B's in English are eligible to try out. The editor for the coming year is elected from the junior class members of the staff.

Each year at Christmas time the staff decorates the halls for the Christmas season. The Swanton Enterprise entertains the group at a banquet in the spring of the year. At this time letters are awarded to the members of the staff.

There are seventeen reporters, a typist (Betty Camp), and a business manager (Larry Sunday). The editor this year was Carole Ann Bloomer, and the assistant editor was Julia Corwin. Mrs Carpenter, and Mr. Radebaugh were the faculty advisors.

The purpose of the Hi-Life is to mold school spirit and to give school news.

SECOND ROW: Mrs. Carpenter, Dorothy Fuller, Bill Daniels, Dick McQuade, George Tolford, Tamara Bloom, Mr. Radebaugh.

Science Club

SECOND ROW: Craig Schondel, Dennis Hallett, Howard Fuller, Bob Pfaff, Lloyd Black, Phillip Drocy, Mr. Radebaugh.

The Science Club was organized to get more people interested in the field of science. This year the Science Club cleaned out the boiler room for storing civil defense materials, and checked coats at the basketball games. They went on numerous field trips and they also learned what to do in case of an atomic attack.

Officers for the year were: President, John Jewell; Vice-President, James Noe; Secretary, Kent Judson; Treasurer, Guy Sutherland. Mr. Radebaugh was the faculty sponsor.

Camera Club

The Camera Club is made up of twenty-two members all of whom are interested in taking pictures. They saw films on how to take better pictures, and how to operate a camera properly. As a money-making project the Camera Club had a paper-drive. They donated $30 toward the trampoline.

Officers for the year were: President, William Daniels; Secretary, Jim Stapleton; Treasurer, Mike Pilliod; Trustees, Darrell Slane, Richard Bower, and Gary Jewell.
